

Joint Hometown News Service celebrates your accomplishments.

Congratulations! It's time to let your family and friends at home know about your accomplishment by filling out a Joint Hometown News Service Release Form.

To submit your Joint Hometown News Release: The Joint Hometown News Service is a chance to publicize your career achievement through your hometown newspaper, radio or television station. The Joint Hometown News Release isn't just for military members; it's also for government civilian employees.

The Joint Hometown News Service was designated to showcase the worldwide accomplishments and activities of military members and present a positive image of military people through print and electronic news releases.

In other words, we want to show off what our service members have done.

There are numerous occasions that merit a hometown news release:

Military:

- » Graduation from basic training, officer training school or technical schools » Promotion to E-3 and higher (as the promotion occurs)
- » Selected for promotion to E-9 and O-6 and above » Permanent change of station
- » Awards and decorations » Re-enlistments
- » Retirements » Olympic or Pan-American game selection
- » Receipt of college degree » Suggestion awards of $50 or more
- » Participation in a national news event

Civilians:

- » Numerous awards at all levels
- » Decoration for Exceptional Civilian Service
- » Suggestion award of $500 or more
- » Graduation from military school
